INDEX TO THE THIRTEENTH VOLUME

OF

Johns Hopkins University Studies

IN

HISTORICAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCE.

A

Adams, Prof. H. B., on "Is History Past Politics?" 189–203.
Agriculture, Franklin on, 451–455.
Apprenticeship, 286.
Arnold, Dr. Thos., as historian, 194–196, 197 note.
Articles of Association, 486–491.
Association of the Freemen of Maryland, 497–499, 505–509.

B

Ballagh, J. C., on "White Servitude in the Colony of Virginia," 261–357.
Baltimore, Lord. See George Calvert, Cecilius Calvert.
Bennett, Richard, 159, 162, 166, 169; parliamentary commissioner, 173–180; governor of Va., 177–182; agreement with Lord Baltimore, 181–183.
Berkeley, Gov. Wm., of Va., 152–153, 160–169, 172–177, 183.
Bermuda Hundred, 277, 279, 281.
Bicameral system, in America, 207–258; in Mass., 212–217; English model, 217, 258; in N. H., 217–220; in Conn., 220–226; Randolph episode, 222–223; in R. I., 226–230; in N. J., 231–238; in N. Y., 239–242; in Pa. and Del., 242–246; in Md., 247–249; in Va., 250–251; in the Carolinas, 251–254; in Ga., 254; in the Federal Constitution, 255–257; in Ver., 257, 258.
Bills of credit, in Md., 500, 508, 529.
Boundaries, of Cal., 404–408.

C

California, first constitution of, 361–417; conquest of, 367–369, 373–375; slavery, 369–372, 383, 386, 397–401, 405–407; gold, 372, 382; under Mexican law, 373–375; under martial law, 374–382; No-Government period, 382–387; need of law, 388–391, 391 notes; Constitutional Convention, 387, 391–412; its call, 387–392; its personnel, 393–399; constitutional provisions, 397–409; precedents followed, 413–415; bibliography, 416–417. See Contents, 365–366.
Calvert, Cecilius, instructions to his colonists, 136; orders the seizure of Claiborne, 139; desires the governorship of Va., 146; dispute with Wm. Penn, 151; under the Commonwealth, 168, 171–173, 179–184; toleration under, 170, 172, 183.

Calvert, George, his visit to Va., 130–131; receives grant of Md., 131.
Calvert, Gov. Leonard, 137, 147–149, 153, 168.
Carolina, exploration of, 22–23; grants, 23–26; name, 23 note; Fundamental Constitutions, 26–28; partition, 31.
Claiborne, Wm., settlement on Kent Island, 129–135; secretary of Va., 131–132, 142; licensed under the Scottish Seal, 132, 150; licensed by Va., 133–134; petitions the King for protection, 135, 150; refuses allegiance to Md., 137; charges against, 138; the King favors his claim, 139–140; naval fights, 140–141; his estates confiscated, 150; decision of 1638, 150–151; regains Kent Island, 152–153; treasurer of Va., 152; parliamentary commissioner, 173–180; his last attempt to regain Kent Island, 184–185.
Clobery and Co., 132, 136, 140, 147–149, 151.
Coin, distinction from bullion, 437–438.
Colonial government, English, 18–22, 31–36.
Communal system, 270–278.
"Confederacy," Indian, 543–547, 552–554, 561–562.
Congress, debates on California, 381, 386–387.
Connecticut, bicameral system in, 220–226; Fundamental Orders, 220–221; charter of 1662, 221–224.
Continental Congress, 486–487; interference of, with Md., 512–516.
Cosmogony, Indian, 567–572.
Council of Safety, Md., 502, 506–507, 510–515, 524, 535–536.
Currency, of S. C., 110–114.

D

Declaration of Rights, Cal., 400, 414; its sources, 414 and note.
Delaware, bicameral system in, 243–246; Act of Union, 244.
Division of labor, Franklin on, 453–454.

E

Eden, Gov., of Md., 493, 509 note, 511–515, 520.
Electoral system, in Md., 527–528.
Episcopacy, in S. C., 70; in Va., 153–155, 157.
Evelin, George, 147–149.

F

Female succession, among the Va. Indians, 546.
Festivals, Indian, 580–581.
Fleete, Capt. Henry, his charges against Claiborne, 138 and note; siezes a pinnace, 140.
Franklin, Benjamin, as an economist, 421–476; his utilitarian spirit, 425–434, 438, 466–467, 472; as editor, 425–431; as diplomatist, 431–433; his economic doctrines, 436–473; bibliography, 475–476. See Contents, 423.
Franklin, favors unicameral legislature, 246, 256 and note.
Freeman, Prof. E. A., his idea of history, 189–191 and note.
Free trade, Franklin on, 434–435, 456–460, 472.
Fundamental Constitutions, 26–28; governor, 37; council, 42; assembly, 47–48, 50, 54; territorial divisions, 58; incorporated towns, 76; judiciary, 77.

G

Georgia, bicameral system in, 254.
Governor's salary, in S. C., 40.

H

Hactenus inculta, 131–136, 140, 150–151.
Harrison, Rev. Thos., 165–168 and note.
Harvey, Gov. John, licenses Claiborne, 133; opposition to, 139, 141–145 and note.
Heath, Sir Robert, grant of Carolina to, 23–24.

Hendren, Dr. S. R., on the "Government and Religion of the Virginia Indians," 541–596.
History, as past politics, 189–203; Freeman's motto, 189–191; unity of, 190, 193–199, 203; biographical idea of, 192–193; institutional, 196–198, 201; political, 200–203.
Human sacrifice, Indian, 587–589.
Hundred, the, in Va., 277 and note.
Hunt, R. D., on "The Genesis of California's First Constitution," 361–417.

I

Indians, Va., government of, 543–562; the "confederacy," 543–547, 552–554, 561–562; the sachem, 547, 550; the war chief, 547, 550; the council, 548–549, 551; priests, 551, 578–585; penalties, 555–556; warfare, 557–559; etiquette, 560–561; religion of, 563–590; devil worship, 563–566, 574–575, 577 note, 589; other gods, 567–570, 584–587; immortality, 568, 571–574; burial, 572, 575–577; oracles, 577; medicine, 579; ceremonials, 580–590; survivals of, 591–594; bibliography, 595–596.
Ingle, Richard, takes St. Mary's, 153, 165.
Interest, fructification theory of, 439–440.

J

Jury, in S. C., 80–82 and note, 88, 90.

K

Kent Island, occupied by Claiborne, 131–135; reduced by Calvert, 148; attempts of Claiborne to regain, 152–153, 184–185.

L

Land bounty, 531–535, 531 note.
Land system, in Va., 270 note, 343–345.
Latané, John H., on "The Early Relations between Maryland and Virginia," 125–188.
Legislative initiative, in S. C., 47, 52.
Lieber, Francis, as historian, 201.
London Company, the, early colonization under, 269–290; land grants of, 270 note, 275–279, 283, 289.

M

Machinery, Franklin on, 442, 453.
Malthus, influence of Franklin on, 429, 445–447.
Manufactures, Franklin on, 429–432, 443, 453.
Manufactures, in Va., 342 note; in Md., 488, 508.
Maryland, bicameral system in, 247–249 and note.
Maryland, early relations between, and Va., 125–188; Claiborne's settlement on Kent Island, 131–138; naval fights, 140–141; siezes Kent Island, 148; attaints Claiborne, 150; taken by Ingle, 153; religious toleration in, 164–170; Puritan migration to, 168–170; Puritan supremacy in, 176–183.
Maryland, provisional government of, 479–537; proprietary government, 481, 520; non-importation agreement, 482–491, 496; Provincial Conventions, 484–535; manufactures in, 488, 508; militia, 489–493, 497–499; committees of observation, 490–491, 501–503; loyalty of, 492, 508–510, 516–519; bills of credit, 500, 508, 529; Council of Safety, 502; outside interference, 512–516, 523–524; declares for independence, 520–521; qualifications for voters, 521–522; adoption of a constitution, 525–528; electoral system, 527–528; land bounty dispute, 531–536; the new government, 536.
Mason, Gov., of Cal., 378–385, 381 note.
Massachusetts, bicameral system in, 212-217.
Mexico, war with, 367–375.
Money bills, in S. C., 47–48.
Moran, Thos. F., on "The Rise and Development of the Bicameral System in America," 207–258.

N

Nansemond settlement, 160–169.
Naturalization, in S. C., 75–76.
Natural law, Franklin on, 444–445, 448–449, 453, 456–458, 483.
Navigation acts, the, 87–89, 103.
Negroes, free, in Cal., 400–401.
New England preachers, in Va., 161–164.
New Hampshire, bicameral system in, 217–220.
New Jersey, bicameral system in, 237–238 and note.
Newtown case, 214–215.
New York, bicameral system in, 239–242; the Charter of Libertys, 240 and note.
Niebuhr, B. G., as historian, 197 and note, 198.
Non-conformist acts, in Va., 155, 163–166.
North Carolina, bicameral system in. 251–253; the Concessions, 251, 252 note; the Fundamental Constitutions, 252–253.

P

Paper money, Franklin on, 426–427, 432, 436–440, 471.
Parish, ecclesiastical unit, 49, 69–73; representation by, 49, 73–74.
Parliamentary Commission, 172–180.
Pennsylvania, first paper money in, 426–428.
Pennsylvania, unicameral system in, 242–246; charter of 1682, 242–243; charter of 1683, 244; charter of 1701, 245–246; favors unicameral federal legislature, 246, 256.
Physiocrats, the, Franklin and, 433, 462–467.
Pilgrim Fathers, the, Va. charter of, 158.
Politics, determine history, 189–192.
Poor, the, care of, 71–72, 107–109.
Population, Franklin on, 429, 443–447, 472.
Powhatan, 543–547, 553, 561.
Primary assembly, in Md., 247.
Property, among the Va. Indians, 547.
Proprietary government, in Carolina, 23–31; in Md., 481, 520.
Providence settlement, 169–170, 176, 179.
Provincial Convention, in Md., of June, 1774, 484–485; of Nov., 487–489; of April, 1775, 492–493; of July, 494–506; of Dec., 507–510; of May, 1776, 514–516; of June, 519–524; of Aug., 524–535.
Punishments, among the Va. Indians, 555–556.
Puritans, early settlement of, in Va., 155–160; New England ministers called, 162–164; persecution of, in Va., 163–169; migration to Md., 169–170; supremacy in Va. and Md., 171–186; influence on the Church in Va., 18 –186.
Purviance, Samuel, 512–514.

Q

Qualification, in S. C, for the Assembly, 49–50; of voters, 74; of jurors, 80–81.
Quit-rents, in S. C., 65–68.

R

Raleigh, Sir W., grant of, 22.
Ranke, Leopold von, as historian, 198–200.
Religion, of the Va. Indians, 563–590.
Rhode Island, bicameral system in, 221–230; referendum in, 227 note; Warwick and Portsmouth petitions, 228.
Riley, Gov., of Cal., 385, 387–388, 391–392, 412 note.
Roads, in S. C., 72–73, 106–107.

S

San Francisco Legislative Assembly, 385, 387–388.
Scotland, patents under the seal of, 132–133, 150.
Seeley, Prof. J. R., as historian, 201 note.
Servitude, in England, 332–334 and note; in the colonies, 351–353.
Servitude, in Va., 261–357; sources, 265–266, 354–357; importance, 267–268, 298–300, 347–351; under the London Company, 269–290; of Planters, 270–284; penal, 281, 293–296, 351; indented, 285–292, 285 note; by "spiriting," 296–297; of negroes and Indians, 298 note; legal status, 300–326; assignment, 301–302, 323; punishments, 303, 306, 313–318; rights, 302–307, 319–325; marriage, 308–309, 330–331; fugitives, 309–318; and slavery, 317, 322–328, 349 and note, 350; certificate of freedom, 320–321, 339; social condition, 326–338; the freedman, 339–346.

Sherman v. Keayne, 215–217.
Silver, J. A., on "The Provisional Government of Maryland," 479–537.
Slavery, California and, 369–372, 383, 386, 397–401, 405–407; and servitude, in Va., 317, 322–328, 349 and note, 350; among the Indians, 548.
Slaves, patrol of, in S. C., 94–95.
Smith, Adam, and Franklin, 429, 469–471.
South Carolina, bicameral system in, 253–254.
South Carolina, colonial government of, 3–121; sources, 9–17; revolution of 1719, 29–30; a royal province, 31–36; executive officers, 37–41, 45–46; council, 42–45; assembly, 47–55; geography, 56–60; colonization, 58–63; towns, 63–65; land title, 65–68; local government, 69, 76; the poor, 71–72, 107–109; commissions, 72–73; naturalization, 75–76; judiciary, 77–90; the jury, 80–82, 88, 90; appeals, 82–83, 86, 88, 89 note, 90; wills, 85; militia, 91–96; taxation, 97–109; currency, 110–114; population, 115–119; governors, 120–121. See Carolina, and Contents, 5–6.
Standard of life, Franklin on, 444.
Stone, Gov. Wm., of Md., 168–170, 176–181.

T

Taxation, Franklin on, 459–461.
Taxation, in S. C., 97–109; property tax, 97–99; poll tax, 99–100; duties, 100–103; licenses, 104–105; road tax, 106–107; poor rates, 107; fines, 107–109.
Tea, non-importation of, in Md., 485–486, 491.
Tenants-at-halves, in S. C., 285–287.
Tobacco, in Va., 155, 161, 300 and note, 347 note; in Md., 529.
Toleration, religious, in Va., 155; in Md., 164–165, 168–172, 183.

U

Unicameral system, favored by Pa. 246, 256–258, 256 note.

V

Vallejo, Gen., 368, 372, 396.
Value, labor theory of, 448–449.
Vermont, unicameral system in, 257–258; bicameral system, 258.
Veto, in S. C., 52–54.
Virginia, bicameral system in, 250–251.
Virginia, early relations between Md. and, 125–188; original grant of, 129; visit of Lord Baltimore to, 130–131; claim of, to Kent Island, 133–134; protests against Baltimore's grant, 135; instructs Claiborne concerning Kent Island, 137; insurrection in, 139, 141–145; episcopacy in, 153–155; Puritan colonists in, 155–160; persecution of the Puritans, 160–169; Puritan supremacy in, 174–183; influence of the Puritans, 185–186; bibliography, 187–188.
Virginia Indians. See Indians.
Virginia, interference with Md., 512–514, 523–524.
Virginia, white servitude in, 265–357. See Servitude.

W

Wages, Franklin on, 433, 441–442.
Warfare, Indian, 557–559.
Watertown protest, 212–213 and note.
Wetzel, W. A., on "Benjamin Franklin as an Economist," 421–476.
Whitaker, Rev. Alex., 157 and note.
Whitney, Dr. E. L., on the "Government of the Colony of South Carolina," 3–121.
Wife, separate property of, in Cal., 402–403.

Y

Yeardley, Gov., of Va., 270 note, 275, 278, 282–285.